KEY 1989 ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Luncheon Honors Nominees, Tea Honors Retirees. The Foundation Board hosted a luncheon to honor award nominees and a tea to honor retiring educators. The Junior League of Athens provided the Taylor-Grady House for these events.

- Long-term Planning Undertaken. The Foundation Board set an annual fundraising goal of $20,000, agreeing to set aside 75% of that amount each year to build a $500,000 endowment by the year 2000. Strategies were established for tapping all segments of the educational community as well as the business community. Payroll deduction was set up for CCSD employees to give to the Foundation.
- Comer Chair Established. A gift of $10,000 from the family of Martha Comer established the Comer Teaching Chair in Foreign and Classical Languages. Processes were put in place for nominations and selection. The first chair recipient will be named in 1990.
- CPE Continues Support. The Citizens for Public Education donated funds left over from the bond referendum to the Foundation. The CPE barbecue fundraiser netted $5,800 for the Foundation. CPE's total gift for the year was over $6,400.
- Other Major Contributors. Contributions of $500 or more came from C & S, Georgia National, Athens Federal, Bank South, Trust Company, CertainTeed, and the Athens High School Class of 1948.
- By-law Amendment Approved. The Clarke County Board of Education approved a bylaw amendment changing Foundation Board membership from five BOE members to three and seven community members to nine. This change will be phased in over a three year period.
- Kilpatrick Leaves Directorship. Cardee Kilpatrick stepped down from the Executive Director position after six years of service. Charlotte Brown will assume the Executive Director's duties in January 1990.
