KEY 2001 ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- The Jimmy Morris Memorial Fine Arts Grant was funded by a $5,000 donation from REM/Athens, an art Auction at the Lyndon House Gallery and the sale of children's art cards by the art faculty of the district, and will be awarded in November of 2002.
- The Margaret & Raymond Ponsoldt Chair of Elementary School Teaching was established by BOE member James Ponsoldt in honor of his parents. The first Elementary School Teaching Chair will be awarded in August of 2002.
- The daughters of Frusanna Booth contributed another $7,500 to the Language Arts Chair, raising the endowment to the $18,000 level.
- The Classroom Grants were fully funded by the Newland Family Foundation ($9,400).
- A new plaque is now hanging in the CCSD BOE meeting room to honor all recipients of the Howard B. Stroud Award.
- A committee reviewed and revised all Teacher of Excellence, Chair and Stroud nomination forms. In addition, revisions were made to the Classroom Grant application forms.
- All holdings of the FFE are now housed solely in IJL-Wachovia.
- A letter writing campaign was launched to solicit and renew memberships.
- A public relations class at UGA, under Professor Carolina Acosta-Alzuru, undertook to present the FFE with a public relations campaign. The plan was enthusiastically received and ideas will be implemented in 2002.
