KEY 1990 ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- First Teaching Chair Named. Carolyn Howell, Cedar Shoals HS, was named the Martha Comer Teaching Chair of Foreign and Classical Languages. This first teaching chair is for a period of years and carries a stipend of $750 annually.

- Second Teaching Chair Established. A Middle School Teaching Chair was established in honor of Cardee Kilpatrick who served for six years as the Foundation's Executive Director. The proceeds of the Citizens for Public Education fundraiser—$3,000—were designated for the new chair.
- Luncheon Honors Nominees. The Foundation's tradition of honoring award nominees at a luncheon continued with the Junior League of Athens providing the Taylor-Grady House and Epting and Cobb Caterers supplying most of the food.
- Businesses Support Awards. Funds for the Foundation's awards were given by Nakanishi, Trust Company, Bank South, C & S, Georgia National, and Athens Federal in amounts varying from $500 to $1,000.
- Teacher of Excellence Qualifications Modified. The Foundation Board voted to change the criterion for next year's teacher awards from a minimum of five years experience in the Clarke County School District to five years of experience in Clarke County and/or other accredited school systems. This change will take effect in 1991.
