KEY 1986 ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Award Process Refined for Teachers of Excellence. The composition of the selection committee was balanced, and eligibility for the awards was clarified. A plaque to which names can be added annually was placed in the Board of Education meeting room. The Foundation began recognizing all nominees with a reception and certificates. The YWCO gave complimentary memberships to the 1986 winners.

- Brochure Published. The Foundation's first brochure communicate the organization's purpose and projects, emphasizing excellence in education.
- Barbeque Benefits Foundation. The Citizens for Public Education gave the Foundation $5,000 which represents the proceeds from the CPE's April barbeque.
- Junior Chamber of Commerce Transfers Funds to Foundation. The former Athens Junior Chamber of Commerce transferred its building fund of approximately $12,000 to the Foundation for the purpose of awarding scholarships to one Clarke Central student and one Cedar Shoals student pursuing a teaching career.
- Junior League Funds Awards Again. The Junior League of Athens funded three Teacher of Excellence Awards for the second year in a row.
- Banks Back Awards. Five Athens banks contributed $500 each for Foundation awards- Trust Company, First American, Athens Federal, Bank South, and Citizens and Southern.
- General Guidelines Adopted for Foundation Recognition. The trustees adopted six guidelines for recognition of excellence. The guidelines emphasize the importance of recognition of excellence in all areas of education and allow for flexibility as the Foundation grows.
- Attendance By-law Approved. The trustees incorporated an attendance requirement into the Foundation by-laws, requiring attendance at 75 percent of all regular or called meetings and allowing no more than two missed meetings in either the first or second half of the calendar year.
